

MaryAnne Frank was born, baptized, and schooled at St. Charles Borromeo Parish. She received her diploma in nursing from St. Gabriel's School of Nursing and baccalaureate degrees in English and Philosophy from the University of St. Thomas. She retired from Hennepin County Medical Center (HCMC) after 47 years, the last 35 as House Nursing Supervisor. She remains an active member of the HCMC Bio Medical Ethics Committee since 1981 and also serves on the Archdiocesan Bio Medical Ethics Committee. In the past, she taught 9th grade religious education, and co-chaired the Holy Family Program. She is a founding member and president of Curatio, an apostolate for Catholic health care workers.